OVERALL STUDENT SATISFACTION

MACLEAN'S UNIVERSITY
RANKINGS, 2021

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO BROCK UNIVERSITY!

Follow the steps below to begin your Brock experience.

01 Bookmark brocku.ca/discover

We'll keep you in the loop throughout the admissions process and make sure you're prepared for your first day as an official Brock student. Updates and information will be posted regularly at brocku.ca/discover. You'll also receive regular emails from Discover Brock to ensure that you don't miss any important dates or deadlines – be sure to check often.

02 Activate your my.brocku.ca portal

If you haven't done so already, activate your my.brocku.ca portal as soon as possible. Refer to brocku.ca/discover for instructions. You'll access this portal to check your admission status, monitor any required documents, apply for residence, awards and bursaries, register for your courses, and pay your fees.

03 Accept your offer of admission

We can't wait to welcome you to Brock. Accept your offer of admission to Brock University at ouac.on.ca or my.brocku.ca (whichever is applicable) by the date specified in your admission letter. If you are an international student, you'll need to submit your $1,000 tuition deposit (non-refundable) by the same date.

Applicants from Ontario secondary schools must accept their offer of admission by June 1, 2021.

Please note that all conditions related to your offer of admission are clearly outlined in your Offer of Admission letter. Please review these conditions carefully and retain the letter for future reference.

04 International students: apply for your study permit

International students must apply for a study permit (visa) from an appropriate Canadian embassy, high commission or consulate. Visit brocku.ca/international for more information.

05 Share your excitement

Connect with us and with other new Badgers on YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Snapchat. You can ask questions, meet other new students, and receive information about new opportunities, deadlines and events. You can also show your Brock pride with custom banners for your online profiles. Find them at brocku.ca/discover/next-steps

06 Participate in a guided tour

If you haven't done so already, be sure to visit our beautiful campus. Whether online or in-person, our student ambassadors will personally guide you through classrooms, residences, recreation spaces and other areas of interest. Visit brocku.ca/discover/tours to register and to view tour times and availability.

07 Claim your space in residence

Live in one of Brock's convenient and welcoming residences.

In the Fall term, Brock's residences opened at reduced capacity to allow for physical distancing and to allow for other measures recommended by government and public health officials. Limited space may be available for those beginning studies in January 2021. Please visit brocku.ca/residence for deadlines and availability. Please note that the majority of classes will continue to be held online during the Winter term.

Brock hopes to guarantee a space in residence to all new full-time undergraduate students beginning in Fall 2021, who meet our residence application conditions. A full summary of conditions and criteria may be found at brocku.ca/residence prior to the residence application opening.

Several residence styles are available, each offering a unique sense of community. Explore and learn more about our fabulous on-campus community at brocku.ca/residence

Planning to live off-campus? Find a close and affordable option through Brock's Off-Campus Living listings at brocku.ca/ocl

08 Apply for awards and bursaries

One application – more than $1 million available in awards and bursaries. Simply complete our OneApp to be considered for awards valued up to $20,000 and bursaries up to $3,000. Apply early to increase your eligibility.

Are you an exceptional student and a leader in your school and community? Students applying to full-time studies directly from secondary school may apply for our Brock Leaders Citizenship Award as well – our most prestigious award which includes induction into the Brock Leaders Citizenship Society. International students may also apply for our International Student Ambassador Awards.

09 Create a budget

Your education at Brock is one of the most valuable investments you'll ever make - it requires careful planning. View expected costs at brocku.ca/safa/undergraduate-fees-estimator and begin to plan your budget. We'll help make it possible with one of the best awards programs you'll find. Our Brock Scholars Awards (automatic, no application required) range from $4,000 to $16,000. Our generous awards and bursaries program (via the OneApp) will also assist with your education-related costs. Visit brocku.ca/discover/awards for details.

10 Ontario students - apply for OSAP

If you're planning to apply for the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP), do so after accepting your offer to ensure that your OSAP entitlement is ready when you start school. Visit osap.gov.on.ca for details.

11 Apply to Law Plus or Med Plus

These co-curricular programs will give you maximum exposure to your field of interest as well as the experience you'll need to be successful. Each program involves volunteer opportunities, a speaker series and observational visits, job shadowing, skill development workshops, mentorship and program advising. These four-year non-credit programs will run concurrently with your academic studies. Learn more at brocku.ca/ccee/career-education and submit your application by April 15, 2021.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

MACLEAN'S UNIVERSITY
RANKINGS, 2021

12 Aboriginal students – self-identify with Brock Aboriginal Student Services

Aboriginal Student Services provides academic and cultural support specifically tailored for Aboriginal students. Our goal is to assist all Status or Non-Status self-identified Aboriginal students (inclusive of First Nations, Metis, and Inuit students) in making a positive transition to the Brock community.

Our self-identified Aboriginal students have access to supports and services such as: Elder-in-Residence, guiding circles career planning, writing circles, numeracy circles, tutoring, workshops, academic referrals, one-on-one consultations, access to an exclusive computer lab, extended after hours lounge access, a resource library, and specific awards and bursaries.

Aboriginal students who have not already self-identified through the Ontario Universities' Application Centre and are interested in accessing our services, may contact swong2@brocku.ca to self-identify.

14 Plan your schedule and register for your courses

Plan early to maximize your chances of getting the courses you want, when you want them. Visit brocku.ca/discover/register to follow our steps for course registration. Check for specific registration dates at brocku.ca/registrar/guides-and-timetable. It is important to register for your courses prior to arriving to begin your studies at Brock.

If you are an international student with course registration questions, please contact intlstudent@brocku.ca

15 Plan your transition to university life

We want to make your new Brock experience the best it can be. Start planning for your transition with our orientation programs.

Smart Start

Join us for Smart Start, our academic orientation for new students (parents and supporters also welcome). You'll confirm your course schedule, receive information about financing your education, learn about academic success options, and get to know our beautiful campus. Special sessions are offered for transfer students and for those coming to Brock from outside of Ontario.

LEAP

Looking for a personalized, small-group orientation experience? Led by student leaders, LEAP provides an opportunity in the summer months to make new friends and connections while volunteering in the community, exploring the campus, and spending a night in residence.

BaseCamp

Finish your summer with a Brock BaseCamp adventure – backpacking, canoeing and rock climbing trips for incoming students. You'll learn from upper-year student mentors and have new friends and stories to last a lifetime following this unique experience.

Learn more about all of these opportunities at brocku.ca/start

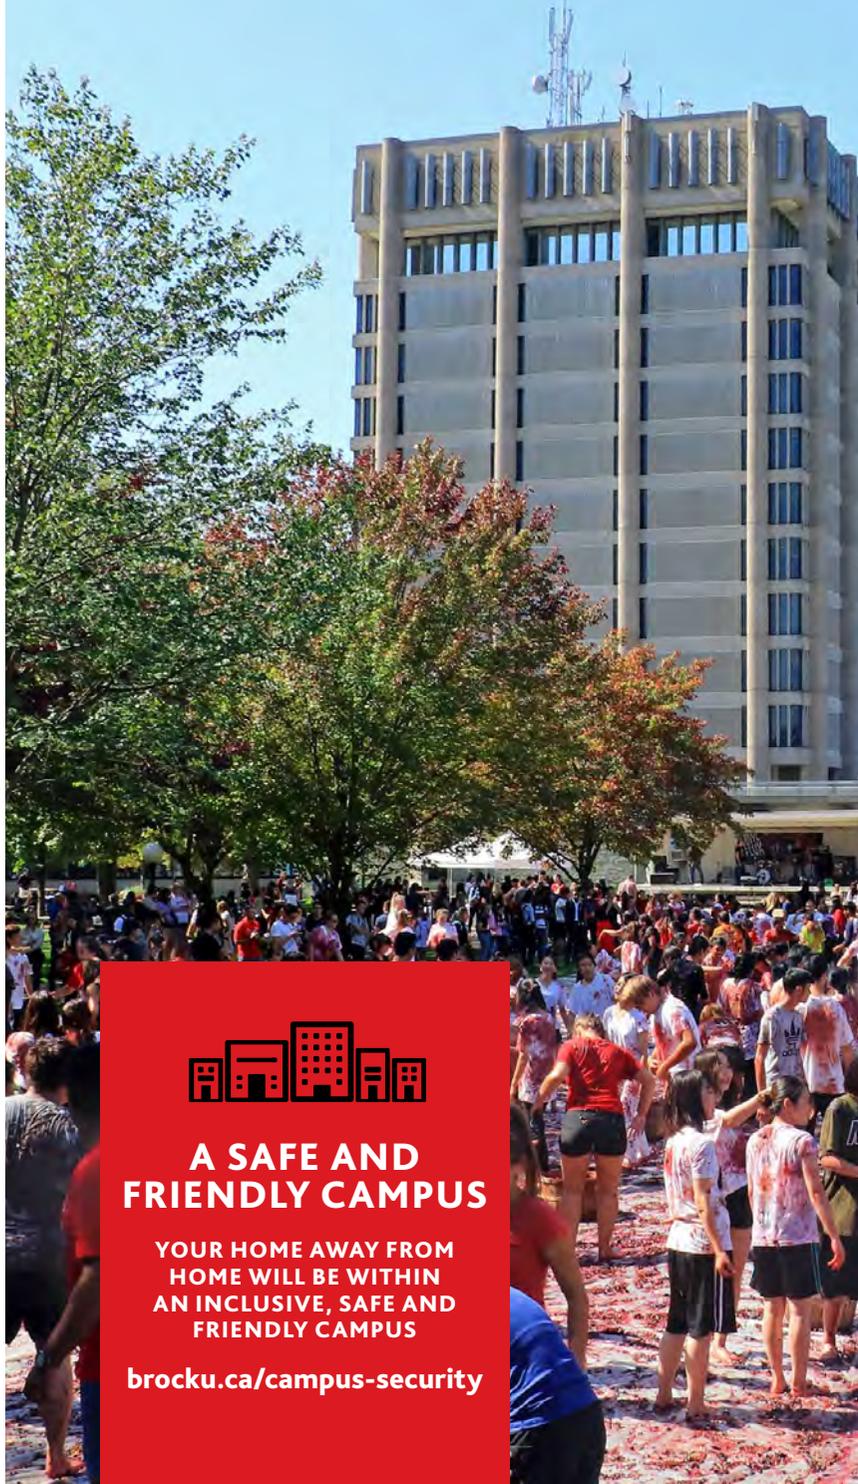

16 Learn more about our student wellness and accessibility services

When you arrive at Brock, know that we are here to support you with free, confidential services such as personal counselling, health services and a student health and wellness hub. We offer a range of options to suit your needs and no question, concern or inquiry is too big or small.

Intending to connect with us regarding a physical or learning disability? Your success is our top priority. Review our services at brocku.ca/sas or contact Student Accessibility Services at sasnewstudent@brocku.ca to book an appointment. Please contact us soon so that we can ensure you have a smooth transition into the Brock community.

17 Determine your fees

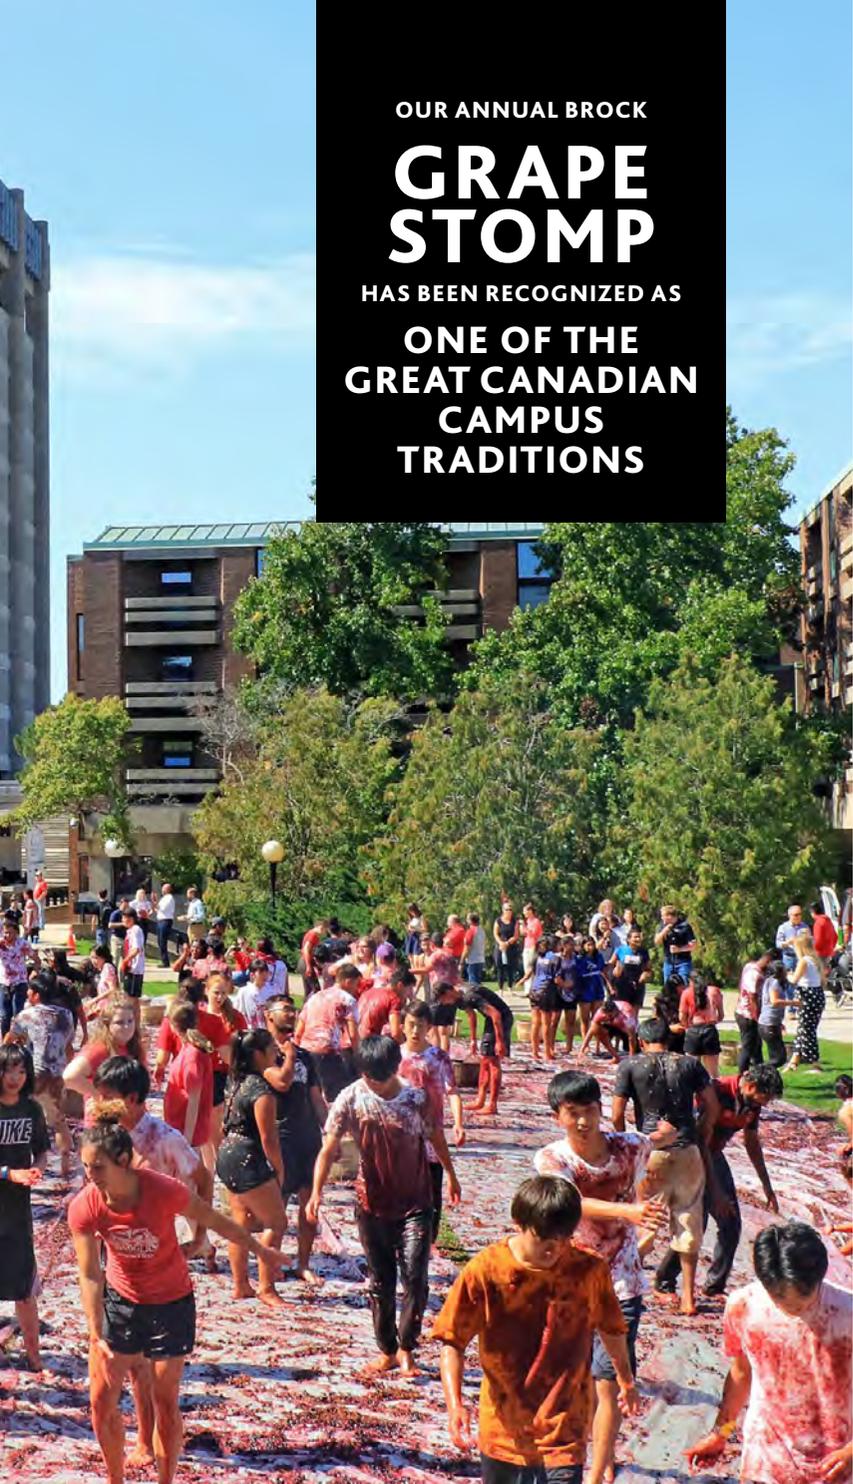

Up-to-date fees and information can be found anytime at brocku.ca/finance/students/undergraduate. After registering in your courses, you may view your assessment through your finance history at my.brocku.ca. This includes tuition as well as any residence or meal plan fees to be paid. 18 Keep working hard

Please ensure that you are continuing to meet all conditions of admission as outlined in your Offer of Admission letter. And remember, our Brock Scholars Awards are based on your incoming admission average – if your average goes up, you may qualify for a higher award. View Brock Scholars Award values at brocku.ca/discover/awards

19 Plan to continue your orientation with BU4U

BU101: Prepare for your academics and complete the BU101 course on Sakai, the home of your online academic courses. BU101 is an 8-hr free, non-credit, asynchronous online academic skills program to build your technology, scheduling, notetaking, and studying skills. Additional lessons help you prepare for university science, math, statistics, and academic writing.

Engagement Communities: Engagement communities bring together small groups of incoming students from the same Faculty, similar academic programs and personal interests. Your Peer Mentor and your Engagement Community will help ensure you have an exceptional first year experience.

First Year Experience: A program to help incoming Brock students get involved outside the classroom through engagement in a variety of co-curricular experiences. Your Peer Mentors within your Engagement Community will connect you to people, events, involvement opportunities, resources and services to support your success.
